Robert Heid

Wheatfield, IN

The E-Rate program has been a critical part of our technology plans at Kankakee Valley School Corporation. It has allowed us to purchase adequate bandwidth for our schools. However, funding needs to be increased to deal with the increasing need for additional bandwidth. Since the demand has been about 5 billion for the last two years, it would seem that is a reasonable figure going forward.